The Navy Show

Has to Go on Regardless

No man is on a tougher spot than Vice Admiral Forrest P. Sherman—who has taken Admiral Louis E. Denfeld's place as Chief of Naval Operations.

Denfeld was removed by executive order after throwing his testimony before a congressional hearing to the Navy in the bitter fight over enforcement of the armed services' unification program.

Denfeld had been promised immunity if he testified—now the Navy cries "repisal" because of his removal. It does look that way. And yet—the Navy show has to go.

Sherman didn't ask for Denfeld's job. He was called back from the command of the Sixth Task Fleet in the Mediterranean and shoved into the Navy's top position. An order is being issued now, whether given by a superior or sea or by the civilian commander-in-chief who sits in the White House.

That's how it is with Sherman. He follows and obeys. He has the admiration and sympathy of the Navy to a man. And Sherman has the further handicap, no doubt, of being envied by older admirals who despise his friendship for Denfeld—resent being passed over for a younger man when Denfeld's job was declared open.

It's a quarrelsome background, but the Navy show has to go on and Sherman will run it, as will any man competent to command a Task Force.

No Longer Wants to Live Says Bolivian Pilot When Told He Killed 55 Persons

Washington, Nov. 3 —(UP)—Eric Rios Brixoux has been told that he killed 55 persons in Tuesday's air disaster here and he no longer wants to live, the Bolivian pilot's physicians said today.

The doctor who asked that his name be withheld said the flight, which brought the stricken flyer near death late last night.

Although his tough body is still fighting on, rallying from the relapse, the 28-year-old Rios now seems to prefer death to recovery, the physician said.

Copper King, Guggenheim, Dies at 88

Port Washington, N. Y., Nov. 3 —(AP)—Solomon R. Guggenheim, 88, died here today of a heart attack. He was a great mining family, died here today at his Long Island estate, Trillora court.

The multi-millionaire copper king was active in the family business until three weeks ago, when he suddenly began to fail. His condition worsened early this week and his three daughters were called home.

His wife, Irene, was with him when he died, and a daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Oure, of Baltimore, also were present. His oldest daughter, Countess Castle Stuart, was reported flying home from England.

Guggenheim was the senior member of the firm of Guggenheim Brothers, and was the last survivor of the seven sons of Meyer Guggenheim, who started the family in the mining business in North and South America.

Guggenheim was a generous patron, and had been collecting since his marriage in 1895 to Irene M. Rothschild, a young art follower.

In 1937 he formed the Solomon R. Guggenheim foundation to encourage and popularize art, especially in its modern form of non-objective painting. His own personal collection ranged from American school art to the Barbizon school and primitives.

As head of the family firm, Guggenheim was a director of a number of metals corporations, including Kennecott Copper, Borden Copper, Pacific Tin, and the New York City Waterways Co. He also was one of the major stockholders in the huge Anaconda Copper Mining Co.

Guggenheim was born Feb. 2, 1861, in Philadelphia, the son of a prosperous embroidery manufacturer. He was educated in the United States and Switzerland. His father early became interested in Colorado mining, and this end of the business prospered so that the family moved to the West.

The family developed vast holdings in the United States, Mexico and South America.

Guggenheim was liberal with charities, and supported many Jewish and non-Jewish institutions. With his brothers, he built an annex to the Mt. Sinai hospital in New York as a memorial to his parents. He is survived by his youngest daughter, Gertrude R. Guggenheim, and four grandchildren.

25% Tax Hike May Be Asked on Some Items

Washington, Nov. 3 —(AP)—President Truman may have to ask congress for an increase of 25 per cent or more in some taxes if he wants to balance the budget this way, government figures showed today.

Despite advance notice of opposition in congress, Mr. Truman has indicated he will ask for more revenues. He says it will be necessary to help cover the $500,000,000 in red ink pending he has estimated for the year ending next June 30.

Violinist Dies During Concert in Baltimore

Baltimore, Nov. 3 — (AP) — Benjamin Sosner, 42-year-old first violinist of the Baltimore Symphony orchestra, collapsed and died last night during a concert.

It was the orchestra's first concert of the season and Reginald Stewart was conducting Brahms' Symphony No. 1.

Sosner broke into a cold sweat as the orchestra launched into the lively third movement of the symphony — the Scherzo.

"I had seen the same pallor before," Stewart said. "It was awful. I tried not to look."

He was recalling the collapse of a clarinet player playing on stage during a concert in 1940. The man died after being carried into the wings.

Walter J. De Lillo was sitting beside Sosner. He urged the stricken violinist to go backstage.

When he finally did get up, De Lillo said, "He said he could. He was a good sport about it."

Sosner stumbled into the wings and collapsed.

The violinist died before an ambulance arrived before the end of the Scherzo he had started.

The audience was not told Sosner had died. His leaving the stage was remarked on in the lobby during intermission. Stewart told the members of the orchestra at the end of the concert.

Engineers to Study Bayou Project

Little Rock, Nov. 3 — (AP) — Submission of the White river valley development plan will be delayed to permit further study of the Wolf Bayou dam near Batesville, Ark.

Col. Thomas A. Lane, Little Rock district U. S. engineer, said the revised program would be deferred until the end of the year for re-evaluation of commercial limestone deposits.

At a Newport, Ark., conference construction of Wolf Bayou dam was opposed on the ground that it would force relocation of the Missouri Pacific tracks and make the limestone deposits inaccessible.

Col. Lane said a proposed site 10 miles upstream from the recommended Wolf Bayou dam site might make construction cost higher and cause a large loss of storage capacity in the lake behind the dam.

Weather Is Scheduled to Be Warmer

By The Associated Press
It was chilly over most of the Midwest today but warmer weather was on the way from the Western states.

Below freezing temperatures extended from the Eastern Dakotas to as far South as northern Arkansas. The coldest spots were Wisconsin, southeastern Minnesota and central Iowa. The mercury was as low as 15 above in some areas. There were a few cool spots in the New England states but temperatures generally were around normal levels over most of the Eastern states. The cool air over the Midwest was headed for the Atlantic seaboard.

Warmer weather spread over the Rocky mountain and Western plains regions and was expected to move across the Midwest by tomorrow. The mercury was on the sunny side in parts of California. At Los Angeles it hit a high of 93 yesterday. In contrast, the high during the day at International Falls, Minn., and Land O'Lakes, Wis., was 27.

There were only a few wet spots today. Light rain or snow flurries were reported in Michigan, Indiana, Ohio and eastern Kentucky.

Blackmer Gets Fined for Tax Evasion

Denver, Nov. 2 — (AP) — Henry M. Blackmer, gray and bent old millionaire, today was fined $20,000 for evasion of federal income taxes.

Blackmer, 80, had pleaded guilty to four counts of an evasion indictment Sept. 26 upon his return to this country after 25 years of self-imposed exile in Europe. He fled this country rather than testify in the Teapot Dome oil investigation in 1924.

Justice Orie L. Phillips of the U. S. circuit court of appeals announced the fine after telling Blackmer that "I do not believe the ends of justice would be served by sentencing the defendant to jail."

Blackmer stood silently and gazed directly at Justice Phillips as the court briefly reviewed the case. After the sentence was announced Blackmer bowed slightly without changing expression and turned away with his attorney, Harold D. Roberts.

Justice Phillips approved the federal attorney's motion for dismissal of four other indictments, two charging perjury and two income tax evasion. The court announced that investigation showed Blackmer was not in Colorado at the time of these alleged offenses in 1921 and 1922.

Justice Phillips said a report from a Boston clinic disclosed that Blackmer is suffering from heart disease and a serious gall-bladder ailment and is forced to adhere to a strict diet. He said he submitted this report to two Denver physicians who later told him "imprisonment would be fraught with serious consequences" and might even cause Blackmer's death.

The court's action came just 20 years and one day after the late Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the interior, was sentenced to one year's imprisonment and fined $100,000 for accepting a $100,000 bribe in the Teapot Dome case. Blackmer became known as "the child of the gods" as he amassed a fortune in mining, oil and railroad ventures. One of those was the Continental Trading company of which he was a director. Old court records showed that company made $2,000,000 in oil trading. The profits went into his own hands. Some of those bonds were traced to Albert Fall, secretary of the interior in the Harding administration.

Pot Luck Supper

The congregation and friends of the First Presbyterian church enjoyed a potluck supper at the church on Monday night.

When a congressional committee sought to question Blackmer about this in its inquiry of the Teapot Dome scandal in 1924, Blackmer slipped away to Europe.

He led the luxurious life of a wealthy exile, resisting attempts to extradite him. But at 80 and none too well, he made arrangements to return home five weeks ago.

He already had paid $3,671,064 in taxes and penalties for taxes due in 1916, 1917 and 1918 through 1923. The government said that cleared up his debts.

The invocation was given by Rev. W. Bensberg. After a delicious supper and group singing Rev. Bensberg read scripture and offered special prayer for home missions. Mrs. T. E. Logan in her interesting manner spoke on "Lift Up Your Eyes."

CIO Hopeful of 2nd Steel Settlement

Cleveland, Nov. 2 — (AP) — CIO steelworkers sources here indicated today they were hopeful of a settlement with a second major steel firm, Jones & Laughlin, as "exploratory talks" began on another front—with Republican Steel Corp.

Republic is the nation's third largest producer.

For three hours last night CIO President Philip Murray conferred with President Ben Moreell and other Jones & Laughlin officials.

A union source described the situation as "hopeful."

Moreell and Vice President Victor Lawrence returned to their Pittsburgh offices today for a round of conferences on their discussions with Murray. They had no comment.

CIO sources here said they understood talks with Inland Steel Co. were to be arranged today in Chicago.

Referring to Jones & Laughlin, one high union official said the situation looked "hopeful."

In New York, meanwhile, a union representative said the strike against Colorado Fuel and Iron corporation was likely to be settled tomorrow. The company employs about 15,000 workers.

Union and company negotiators are scheduled to meet tomorrow at 1 p. m. (CST). Asked if a settlement was likely, the steelworkers' representative said "it looks very much like it."

Mississippi Co. Produces Most Cotton Per Acre

Blytheville, Nov. 2 — (AP) — Which is the largest cotton producing county in the United States? The Blytheville Junior Chamber of Commerce thinks it is Mississippi county, Ark., and is loudly protesting the claim of Kern county, Calif., and the Huron, Calif., community chamber of commerce.

Blytheville has staged a "national cotton picking contest" for ten years, and Huron has a similar event on tap Nov. 6. The controversy might have some connection with the two events.

McPhee, U. S. department of agriculture crop statistician, said in Little Rock that 1948 figures show 292,807 running bales of cotton were ginned in Mississippi county, Ark., and 281,813 bales were ginned in Kern county, Calif.

The American eagle, appears on a greater variety of early hand-made American glassware than pictures of any other device, insignia or personage. Portrait busts of George Washington were the second most popular.

Home Demonstration Club Women Name New Hempstead Council Officers for Year

Seventy five women representing 14 home demonstration clubs attended the fall meeting of the county council of home demonstration clubs, Monday, October 31 in the log hut at the Experiment Station. Mrs. Grace Hückabee, council president, presided at the meeting. Rev. Elbert O'Steen, pastor, Garrett Memorial Baptist church, led the devotional.

The Blue-Cross Shield Health Plan was explained to the group by Oliver L. Adams, county agent. The following county council officers were elected to serve for the next two years: President, Mrs. J. B. Warnken, Sweet Home home demonstration club; vice president, Mrs. Monroe Stuart, Ozan-St. Paul home demonstration club; secretary, Mrs. William Schooley, Victory home demonstration club; reporter, Mrs. Ivan Williams, Liberty Hill home demonstration club.

During the afternoon program plans for the 1949-50 home demonstration club year were made. Annual Christmas party to be held Thursday, December 15 at the VFW with a gift exchange and auction sale. A minimum of fifty cents will be paid for the gift exchange.

The Ozan-St. Paul home demonstration club will be hostess for the Christmas party. Mrs. John Keck, Hopeville home demonstration club was appointed chairman of the decoration committee. The foods committee was composed of Mrs. C. A. Phillips, Sweet Home home demonstration club; Mrs. Tommie Gibson, Hinton home demonstration club; and Mrs. Ervin Betts, Liberty Hill home demonstration club.

Dress revue to be held in March with home demonstration club members modeling dresses made in the following division (1) cotton house dress; (2) church or afternoon dress; and (3) wool or tailored dress.

A tour of the Ozarks to be held the latter part of July or the first of August. These home demonstration club members making the tour last summer will not be eligible to go again next year.

Plans for raising money to finance the tour were discussed. A home demonstration club Christmas Bazaar and food sale will be held just before Christmas with the date to be announced later. At least two council cake walks and pie suppers will be held, one in the north part of the county and one in the south part of the county. Rummage sale will be held early in the spring. Each home demonstration club pledged $10 for the tour with the money to be raised in any way the club wishes to raise it. This pledge is to be met by the June Council meeting. Proceeds from the sale of food at Experiment Station will also help finance the tour.

The county wide home demonstration club project for the next club year is home improvement. Each home demonstration club member is to do something toward improving her home during the next year. Each home demonstration club member with perfect club attendance for 1949-50 will be given an official home demonstration club lapel pin at the annual Christmas party in 1950.

The year book committee composed of Mrs. W. T. Yarberry, Sweet Home home demonstration club; Mrs. J. E. McWilliams, Center Point home demonstration club; and Mrs. Odell Luck, Green Laster home demonstration club was appointed. This committee is to meet with Lorraine Blackwood, home demonstration agent, in the extension office, in the court house, Monday November 7, at 10 a.m.

Lunch was served at noon. The Shower Springs home demonstration club was hostess with the Green Laster home demonstration club acting as co-hostesses. The following home demonstration clubs were represented: Peace, Victory, Center Point, Hinton, Ozan-St. Paul, Melrose, Liberty Hill, Doyle, Columbus, Sweet Home, Shower Springs, Hopewell, Green Laster and Baker.

After the American Revolution, localists fled to the Bahamas where they started a boom in cane and cotton plantations — a boom which faded when slavery was abolished in 1838.

Truman Rides Old Campaign Train

Aboard Truman Train En Route to St. Paul, Nov. 3 — (A) — President Truman's old campaign train rolled again today on the anniversary of his greatest political victory.

He carried with him what he jokingly described as a "non-political, bi-partisan" speech for delivery at St. Paul, Minn., at 9:30 p. m. (CST) tonight.

His aids said it was a renewal of his bluffs at "reactionaries" and of his championship of the "fair deal" program for which he campaigned in 1948 and which he presented to the 81st congress last January.

And they emphasized he will send the program back to congress again in January and back to the voters in next year's congressional elections.

It was a year ago today — the result was long in doubt in the Nov. 2 voting — that Mr. Truman received the news of Thomas E. Dewey's concession of defeat.

It came to him in the penthouse of Kansas City's Hotel Muehlebach after he had spent election night hiding away at a hotel in Excelsior Springs, Mo.

Many of the proposals for which he campaigned have failed so far in congress — notably civil rights measures, a national health program and federal aid-to-education.

He started the 1950 Democratic campaign ball rolling last Labor day with speeches at Pittsburgh and Des Moines. What he calls the "reactionaries" and "selfish interests" are his targets again. He is due in Minneapolis at 1 p. m. (CST) for a parade into St. Paul, a reception, a banquet and then his speech in the civic auditorium. It is all part of "Truman Day" climaxing the celebration of Minnesota's centennial.

The presidential special this time is a "stag train." There isn't even a woman reporter aboard. It differs from the campaign train in that he isn't making any platform speeches at this time. A crowd of several hundred turned out when he stopped briefly at Cumberland, Md., last night. He appeared with Democratic National Chairman Bill Boyle and waved.

VALUES GALORE

At Your Friendly A&P Store

We don't claim that we have all the best food values in town all the time. But we do claim that no store has more of them more days a week. How come? Simply because A&P keeps operating expenses and profits consistently low and passes the result of savings on to you in the form of prices that are as low as possible day in and day out. Yes, at A&P you'll find values galore all through the week and all through the year.

Customers' Corner

Question: Does your A & P give you good food at low prices?

Answer: Yes. That is why millions of American families do all their food shopping at A & P.

Question: Is A & P a monopoly?

Answer: No. We do only a small share of the nation's food business... a smaller share than we did 10 years ago.

Question: Does A & P drive competitors out of business?

Answer: No. We have more competitors today than we had 10 years ago and many of our good competitors have publicly advertised their willingness and ability to compete with us.

Why, then, do the anti-trust lawyers want to put your A & P out of business?

Picks L. R. Over Hope, Rice Owls Over Arkansas

By CARL BELL
Little Rock, Nov. 3 —(P)—Just as we had decided football forecasting was a futile task, we ran up an 807 average last week with 34 right, seven wrong and three ties.

That boosted our previously slumping season record to 749-173 right, and 54 wrong and 15 ties.

Maybe we can improve a little more with—

Rice over Arkansas: The only chance of an upset is for the crippled Razorbacks to be as high as a kite and the powerful Owls to be flat as an airless tire.

Baylor over Texas: The Bears have had to have plenty to stay unbeaten and untied furthermore, Texas has a lot of injured hands this week.

SMU over Texas Aggies: No explanation needed.

Henderson over Arkansas State: Although ineligible for the title itself, State already has killed the chances of one AIC title hopeful. It may be Henderson's toughest test to date.

Others: Arkansas over Arkansas A. and M., Little Rock JC over Ozarks, Guachita over Hendrix; Magnolia A. & M. over State Teachers Bethel over Arkansas college.

High school: El Dorado over Fordyce; Fort Smith over Texarkana; Hope Springs over Jonesboro; Little Rock over Hope; Blytheville over

Tigers to Meet
El Dorado Here
Saturday Night

The Yerger Tigers will meet the El Dorado eleven Saturday night at Hammans stadium in what promises to be a hard fought game.

The Tigers appeared last week-end in the game with Camden last week-end and the Tigers appeared to have regained their old form and have a chance to avenge the defeat handed them last year by El Dorado which snapped their conference winning streak, and chance for the championship.

Advance tickets will be on sale
